

Members of UW-Extension Service-Learning Committee

Sue Curtis (chair)

Sue Curtis is the service learning coordinator and leads the Community University Partnership at UW-Platteville. She also coordinates the Operation Military Kids and Vista Programs for UWEX - 4-H.

You can contact Sue at (608) 342-1308 or sue.curtis@ces.uwex.edu.

Ellen Andrews

Ellen Andrews is the Youth and Family & Youth Program Coordinator for Outagamie County. Not only has she serviced on the UW-Extension Service-Learning Committee, Ellen is a member of the Greater Fox Valley Service-Learning Council. Her graduate research thesis is titled, "Success Factors in the Use of Service-Learning Elements in Wisconsin 4-H Clubs.

You can contact Ellen at (920) 832-5120 or ellen.andrews@ces.uwex.edu.

John de Montmollin

John de Montmollin is an Assistant Professor and Youth & Family Educator with Kenosha County UW-Extension. His major work in service learning began in 2005 as he provided leadership in the develop of local resources to aimed to help schools adopt service learning principles. His philosophy of service learning focuses not on the actual activity, but rather the individual learning experiences of each participant. In addition to service learning, John works with both youth and adult audiences in the areas of leadership, team building and personal development. He earned his Bachelor and Masters degrees in Education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and has completed post-graduate work in counseling from Winona State University.

You can contact John at (262) 857-1945 or JdeMontm@ces.uwex.edu.

Donna Duerst

You can contact Donna at (608) 757-5690 donna.duerst@ces.uwex.edu.

Gloria Fauerbach

You can contact Gloria at (715) 561-2695 or gloria.fauerbach@ces.uwex.edu.

Pam Hobson

Pam Hobson has been the 4-H Youth Development Agent in Richland County for the past nineteen years. As a 4-H Youth Development Agent a significant programming component has always centered on the 4-H community club and community service. This agent was a charter member of the Service Learning Committee and has focused most of her efforts in helping volunteers understand how community 4-H club service projects can be enhanced to become service learning projects. This agent has also taught faculty in-services on Service Learning.

You can contact Pam at (608) 647-6148 or pamela.hobson@ces.uwex.edu.

Jessica Jens

Jessica Jens is the 4-H Youth Development Agent in Sauk County. She leads a collaboration in Sauk County that organizes environmental service-learning projects for youth. She has also been involved in providing service-learning and reflection activity resources for 4-H community clubs.

You can contact Jessica at (608) 355-3250 or JJens@co.sauk.wi.us.

Andy Lewis

Andy Lewis is a professor at the University of Wisconsin Extension where he serves as a Community Development Specialist in the Center for Community and Economic Development at Madison. Lewis is responsible for developing educational programs and tools that assist communities in developing strategies for improving jobs, income and quality of life. From 1996-2001, Lewis served as the Vice President of Program Development for the Learning Institute for Nonprofit Organizations collaboration where he provided leadership to the development of educational programs focusing on the management and leadership of nonprofit organizations.

You can contact Andy at (608) 263-1432 or andy.lewis@uwex.edu.

Ann Keim

You can contact Ann at (608) 262-2453 or ann.keim@uwex.uwc.edu.

Randy Stoecker

Randy Stoecker is Associate Professor in the Department of Rural Sociology at the University of Wisconsin, with a joint appointment in the University of Wisconsin-Extension Center for Community and Economic Development. He has a Ph.D. in Sociology from the University of Minnesota, and a Masters of Science in Counseling from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He moderates/edits COMM-ORG: The On-Line Conference on Community Organizing and Development (<http://comm-org.wisc.edu>), and conducts trainings and speaks frequently on community organizing and development, participatory research/evaluation, and community information technology. He has led numerous participatory action research projects and empowerment evaluation processes with community development corporations, community organizing groups, community information technology programs, and other non-profits in North America and Australia. Randy has written extensively on community organizing and development and community-based research, including the books Defending Community (Temple University Press, 1994), Research Methods for Community Change (Sage Publications, 2005) and the co-authored book Community-Based Research in Higher Education (Jossey-Bass, 2003). You can find his complete vita at <http://comm-org.wisc.edu/stoeckerfolio/stoeckvita.htm>.

You can contact Randy at (608) 265-8256 or rstoecker@wisc.edu.